

How to Awaken the Treasure Within You

Doug Addison with Jeremy Lopez [Episode 13]

April 26, 2017

Hey, everybody. Doug Addison here. Welcome to the Spirit Connection Podcast. I am so excited and glad you could join us, and say thanks to all of our followers and friends. I have an amazing guest on this week and he is a very good friend of mine. You are going to be really excited when you hear what he has to say and how much our hearts are alike. It is Jeremy Lopez of Identity Network.

Doug: Hey, Jeremy! Welcome.

Jeremy: Hey, Doug. It is great to be with you guys today.

Doug: So tell us a little bit about yourself. You are with Identity Network. Where are you located?

Jeremy: Well, we are in Birmingham, Alabama. I tell you, it is amazing because we are able to really send the prophetic word to the nations of the Earth through the Internet and watching God move through it.

Doug: Yes, it is amazing. I follow your prophetic words and, you know, you post some of mine online. We have been kind of running in the same streams for some time now. So, tell us a little more about yourself.

Jeremy: Sure, absolutely. Well, when you look at your age and you think, my goodness, I have been in ministry for 30 years. You know, you realize how old you are getting but actually I have been in prophetic ministry for 30 years. Gosh, I have been an assistant pastor, traveled the nations, have written 27 books so far and I have several courses out. I tell you, Doug, one thing that I really love that God has given me is this amazing ability to help people to sort of process what God is telling them. So that is why I love this ministry so much because I am able to help people. So I basically travel the world and help people to understand God's thoughts toward them.

Doug: Yes. So, you know, I owe it to you ... helping me get started years ago in prophetic life coaching, using the prophetic gifts. I just want you guys to know something. Jeremy and I have been traveling in ministry together for a number of years. We have both gone behind the scenes into Hollywood and the music industry, and we have been involved in giving prophetic words. We cannot tell anyone or they will not invite us back, but it is a blast! You have a very similar heart to mine, Jeremy.

Jeremy: You know Doug, I tell you, for all the listeners I meet, all the years I have known you, it is ... you have an amazing heart and that really is what attracts us to each other is that precious-like faith. You know, and I have always been attracted to people who have the heart of Christ and that is what we have to have today, you know?

Doug: Well, you know what I am really excited about is that you have a website. Identity Network or is it identitynetwork.com?

Jeremy: identitynetwork.com, identitynetwork.net and identitynetwork.org.

Doug: Okay, and that you get prophetic words out there and that you, yourself, have the opportunity to give prophetic words to people. I just want people to know, and I am not just saying this because he is on here and he is my friend. I am serious when I say Jeremy Lopez is hands down the most accurate personal prophetic word prophet that I know.

Jeremy: Aw, man, I appreciate that.

Doug: I mean ... you blow me away at times.

Jeremy: Hey, I tell you the truth, God blows me away. I have found myself saying things before to people and I am thinking to myself, 'did I just say that?' I think God is just amazing speaking through us ... period.

Doug: That is right. I love your humility too. I have learned so much from you, you know, about activating your prophetic words and things like that. That is how we both are prophetic coaches, right?

Jeremy: Exactly. Exactly, and let me tell you something. You mentioned something about the whole 'attracting' in life coaching, and creating, and these different things and prophetic words. You know, Doug, one of the main things I think that we are missing (in my opinion) in the body of Christ is learning how to, as we say, 'activate'; learning how to really connect the dots together with what God is saying to us. I think all of our listeners will probably agree when we say we have all heard from the Lord personally in our prayer closets. You know, we have heard from the Lord, we have had prophetic words in meetings. But it is like they still distance themselves from that word and from that thought of God. And that is one thing that God, I feel like, has really blessed this ministry with—is how to connect the dots and basically marinate but also marry that very thing with the thought that God has towards them.

Doug: So once you get a prophetic word, you get an accurate word from God, the next step then would be how do you activate or make it become real. Some people do not understand that language, to 'activate' it, but it is basically making it become something active and living in your life.

Jeremy: Uh-huh. Exactly. And if you think about it from the word distraction ... and this is what I am going to talk about just for a moment when it deals with prophetic words. We think for a moment that we have to find ourselves basically doing the works of, 'okay, I have to get everything set in motion, I have to get everything, you know, the way it should be in order for God's word to be able to manifest in my reality' but the truth of the matter is, if you think about it, Doug, distraction is what Jesus told Martha in Luke 10:38. He basically said, 'You are worried and upset by many things but only one thing is needed.' I began to do a word study on that and found out that what He was talking about is, 'Martha, you are distracted by all the serving that you think needs to be done,' and that is really where we come to in prophetic words. We find ourselves distracted as opposed to moving like Mary and focusing with an intention on what we call the prophetic word or on the Christ who is before us, and what He wants to say to us. So that is really, I think, the main thing that we have to be able to do with people. Even before and after activating them is try to drive out the 'serving everything, having to get everything in motion and everything set into motion.' If you think about it, it is a religious order. It is a religious pattern that says I have to clean myself up before God can do something with me. And yet the whole time we find ourselves so distracted by works and legalism that we do not realize that what we have to do is focus on the author and finisher of our faith, or have the right or correct intention for what God has just said over our lives. So it is more or less basically learning to be like Mary with the intention of focusing on, for lack of better words, not just Christ ... but the prophetic word as opposed to having to get everything in motion and everything set into order and we lose the authenticity that way. We lose being captivated by the very voice—that God just spoke to us—and the mission He has for us. I think that is really what we are trying to get to. I want to learn to have an intention of being captivated again by the fact that God just spoke to me, now what? That is the first rule of thumb in the Kingdom, really coming to that place of being captivated again.

Do you know what is really great? I have to tell you this. Your listeners will love this. When you are dealing with captivate, it actually means this in the dictionary: it means, “to attract and hold the attention or interest of.” So you are even talking about here in the Webster’s Dictionary about the power of captivation or being captivated is to attract. So if I am captivated by the very notion that God spoke to me, if I am captivated by what God said to me and I humble myself before the mighty hand of God, then I am learning that is the first state of being, of learning to attract into my life the very essence of what God said to me. That is a Mary.

Doug: Wow! It is. I just want to jump in really quick. So about faith—this is really what you are saying. This is the essence of faith, right?

Jeremy: It is. It really is. You know, I was raised in the Word of Faith movement, which I so thank God for. It brought so much. Even through the pendulum swing of the extremities, it brought so much balance in my life and taught me that, you know, faith is the substance of things that we are hoping for. If you stop and think about that, Doug, you think about the fact that if faith is the substance of things hoped for—I remember reading that verse one time and God stopping me and He says, “As much as I know that I want you to hope for, imagine how much I hope that you get this.” In other words, if we say, “faith is the substance of things hoped for,” God is saying, “That is right, I am hoping you will get it as well as you are hoping for the things I want to tell you.” So, if faith is the substance of things hoped for, but as you know, it is evidence of things not seen. And that is really where I think we have to be able to pull it into being at that moment—to realize it is faith that moves the mountains. It is faith to believe that something can appear in my life that, at the current moment, does not exist. It is faith to believe that God says I can be the owner of a business when I have never in my life been to school. It is faith that tells us these things—that really unlocks the door of the supernatural and then God begins to say, “Now, where is your attention? Focus on what I told you.” It is that same thing of a cow. This is going to sound a little bad to the listeners but it is like the cow chewing its cud. I remember when I was 16 years old and hearing my old pastor telling the church, “The cow that chews his cud, he swallows it and he spits it back up and he chews on it again.” The whole time I am thinking, ‘oh man, you are trying to tell me that is like God?’ But what he was saying was that is what we are supposed to do; marinate or chew on the very thing that God tells us to focus on. It is continuing to chew on it, swallow it, chew on it more until you actually are able to consume the whole thing and become that thing.

Doug: Wow! That is so powerful. So I guess what you are saying then is that there are some spiritual principles or spiritual laws that take place.

Jeremy: There are. There are and, you know, if you study even science ... I know a lot of times with all of my partners and subscribers and clients in life coaching, I like to be able to sort of start them off on a 101 of science to let them know that, you know, science and spirituality actually go hand in hand.

It is not an enemy of. In the very beginning of church, science and religion actually were befriending one another. They found a lot of truth there and now I think it is time we get back to the fact that God is bringing us back to the place that everything is energy, everything is light. You know, God backs up in His Word that He is in all things (I think it is in Colossians). So that is sort of the first stage of 101 in science and spirituality that I like to bring people to—to say, “now imagine the power of God’s Word, imagine that as a vibration, as an energy, as a light coming that God sent down to you through maybe a prophet of God or maybe spoke to you personally and now that energy He wants you to connect with it, that vibration he wants you to connect with it.”

So it is like attracts like. It is the faith of God working in us to say I have to connect myself and plug myself into God’s Kingdom. It is the same principle as the woman with the issue of blood, you know, saying within herself, coming into full agreement with inside of herself, that ‘if I reach up and touch that hem of His garment I am going to get what I am asking for.’

Doug: Wow, yes, because the power left Him, right? He felt the power leave Him.

Jeremy: Exactly, exactly, and that really, if you think about it, from a scientific point of view, what if that was a vibration? She had to get into the vibration of the anointing of the King of kings and Lord of lords and when she did, guess what? It is that ‘like attracts like.’ She began to get the very thing she asked for. She got that thing and, like you just said, that anointing left His body and basically came into her because it was an attraction of getting into the mind of Christ and lining up in the way that God wants us to line up—and seeing the prophetic word.

Doug: I just want to jump in and say this because I know that some people kind of cringe when they start hearing us talk about these things that sound new age all of a sudden, But I want to tell you something, the new age stole this from us and we are redeeming this back. Quantum physics is the study of creation. I had a guy on my board for a number of years who was associate dean and he was a scientist. He was a physics guy and he was so helpful for me to understand this, and you Jeremy, where we started to understand these things that the new age stole this stuff, but God is the Creator of all things. We are just using this language, but really we are talking about Jesus Christ here and the power of the Holy Spirit.

Jeremy: Amen. We really are and, you know, the main thing that I like to tell people is, ‘do not get hung up on terminology.’ If you think about it, it is the power behind the terminology. It is the power of Jesus; it is the name of Jesus. When you are dealing with the fact of ... we could say law of attraction or we could say vibration or frequency. And if you think about it, it is the person who actually understands the fullness of what God created that to be in the universe and understands the fact that vibration is what God created everything in the universe to be on—at the vibration and frequency level. If you think about it from the standpoint of the Bible saying ‘even the rocks will cry out if we do not praise Him,’ that shows that everything is vibrational. Everything that can be shaken will be shaken. Everything is shaking. That is vibration. So everything really aligns with that of the Kingdom of God and the Word. So I like to say it, ‘Hey, do you know what? We are taking back what the enemy tried to steal from us because we know a God who created everything to be vibrational. You know, we see that God created everything to be energetic and knowing that He says, you know, Jesus said, “We are the light upon a hill that cannot be shaken,” well that light is energy slowed into matter. So we understand that principle, that it is all biblical. So it is time that we take back what was robbed and stolen from us.

Doug: Absolutely, and as long as we do this using the Bible as our basis, using the Holy Spirit and using Jesus, the blood of Jesus and the power of the Lord, we can do this safely.

Jeremy: Amen, amen, because Jesus has to be the center. I mean, that is the reason why we live, we move and have our being. It is in Him we do these things and that is where, you know, if we begin to understand that the first priority is being in Him, the second priority is understanding now what is in Him doing through me and what am I doing in through Him—and then we understand then, it is an ‘actionary’ process. Okay. I am in Him, but there has to be something moving and happening. So there has to be that energetic flow of really faith without works is dead. It is now putting my faith into action and seeing what God wants for us in our lives. That is really the same thing as really the vibration, the frequency, getting in God’s perfect will, understanding what that looks like. So that is really, I think, the whole key thing, Doug, of the ‘Genesis effect’, as we can call it, the beginning stages, the alpha stages of the prophetic word. It is really understanding what do I need to do first; you know, what does God require of me to do and then what is God’s part in the prophetic word.

Doug: Yes, that is great. Do you know what? I just thought of something. You were actually part of my healing with this. You know, I have gotten so much healing. I just want to jump in here because people might not understand this. You might start getting turned off by our language or whatever. Listen to me. I was so sick. I am now, I am healed, in the name of Jesus, and I remember just last September, maybe it was October, I was still very sick and people were telling me what demons to drive out and all this stuff, you know. People were telling me what to eat and what kind of oils to put on, which is all great, but I got Jeremy on the phone and he said to me these words— “Listen, you need to now set yourself up so that you are going towards where God is calling you.” You said something like that and it was about my positioning myself. I got in the car, I drove and I bought a suitcase as if I was going to go home because I was at this place where I was getting healing, and I began to position myself. I bought clothes, even though the clothes I was wearing were burning me because of the thing I had wrong with me. You helped me so much, Jeremy. I tell you, it was within three weeks I got a breakthrough by this message.

Jeremy: Wow! Praise God. God is so good. You know, Doug, I tell you, even what you just mentioned, I think a lot of times in my life coaching sessions when we are dealing with, you know, “God prophesied to me, God prophesied that to me but yet the enemy is attacking me.” One of the things that I have really come to the realization in my life (through my experience and through really reading the Word of God) is understanding the old saying of ‘what you focus on, you become.’ What you focus on, you attract. What you focus on, you manifest ... and the Bible had it right thousands of years ago. This is not all new terminology. It is all in the Bible where it says, “As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he.” So here is the reality of our lives. We can understand the difference when the enemy is truly attacking us and then knowing the difference between that as opposed to, ‘wait a minute, am I attracting this to myself because my mind has not been renewed to the Christ mind to really understand what I focus on I am attracting.’

I remember so many people in my sessions of life coaching where I dealt with this one lady a couple of years ago where she was constantly under attack all the time, like constantly, for I am talking ... five years. I began to carry her through a series and a season of shifting the mindset, getting the mind of Christ, reexamining what she is focusing on and within three weeks there was no more warfare. Her life had been restored with the Lord. In fact, God restored her family back because I told her, I said, we have to be able to understand if God calls those things that be not as though they were. It is what we focus on that is the most important thing in our lives because our reality is going to manifest exactly what we are thinking out of. If we are thinking out of a sin-conscious mind or a demon mindset versus the Christ mind who says that everything, praise God, is under our feet, that the battle is no longer ours, the battle is His. It is those types of things we have to learn to process to say, ‘Am I under an attack (which happens to us as Christians) or am I doing something maybe in my thought process that possibly God has already dealt with and taken care of? Now, I have to restructure and refocus and re-examine how Christ would see the situation.

You know the old saying is true, for me and that is, ‘what you focus on, you become.’ But what you focus on (in the sense of empowering) sometimes you just need to starve some stuff. You know, the enemy loves our attention. If we starve him and turn away, then we know what we starve dies and it is that thing of shifting our focus on the author and finisher of our faith. It is the same principle as looking up and knowing our redemption is drawing nigh.

Doug: That is so good. Listen, everybody. Like forming a new habit, it takes at least three weeks, right? It may take some time, but when you focus back on the Lord and the Cross of Christ ... I am not saying we do not need deliverance. There is a time and place for it, but we do not want to live in the delivery room. You know, we want to get out and do the things of the Lord. I love this.

Jeremy: Amen. I love it. I love it. You know, there is one delivery room we want to live in, too, and that is the delivery of birthing forth God's plan in our lives. Amen.

Doug: Come on.

Jeremy: That is where I want to live. That is the only delivery room I want to be in. You know, Doug, on this note of what we are talking about, here is a saying that I feel like God put in my heart last year. 'If you are getting it, you are vibrating it.' If you think about that, 'if you are getting it you are vibrating it' and all that means is if you are getting the revelation of God, if your eyes have been anointed with eye salve (like the Book of Revelation says) that you can see. If you have the revelation of the Father of what has just been presented to you in your life, then you are going to vibrate that. In other words, you are on the right road, buddy. You are on the path that gets brighter and brighter, you know, like the Bible says. That is really the idea of, 'well, am I getting it or am I not getting it; do I understand the prophetic word or do I not understand it.' If you do not really come into a place of really getting it and saying, 'now, I have grabbed hold that God has hope and a bright future for me,' that unlocks right there—that unlocks us to say you are on the path of righteousness for His name's sake and that is going to get brighter and brighter and illuminated more with His revelation. So it is the idea of getting what God says and when you get it, ahh, I mean, all things become so possible for us.

Doug: Yes, that is so true. So what you are saying is, you know, that we can actually create an environment that is going to start to charge this stuff up in us.

Jeremy: Absolutely. You know, Doug, you were known for the power of activation. I mean, it is funny that between all of our clients and friends, you know, I am like, "Okay, you want activation. I can do it, but let me tell you something. Go to Doug Addison, you know, because he has that anointing to break the yokes in those areas." The thing that I really love about that is understanding that we have to learn to be activated. We have to learn to be able to know that God has charged us up, and that no matter what He tells us we are already equipped to take it on. You know, in fact, I talked to a gentleman a while back and he said, "Does that mean I am ready to take on the battle, you know, when God speaks a word of the Lord in my life?" I said, "True but here is what I would say. Take your focus off the battling part of it and put it this way. Knowing the battle is His, I would say you are ready now to manifest. You are ready now to shift your environment. You are ready now to change your reality. You are ready now to make “Thy Kingdom come,” which is changing the atmosphere and recreating what the enemy tried to manifest in your life, recreating it by allowing the Kingdom to come and let God’s will be done and that unlocks everything right there. So it is really a shifting of focus and a shifting in consciousness or the mind basically is what we are saying when we say consciousness, to be able to grab the mind of Christ and say, ‘This environment in my home is not supposed to be this way. I am going to speak the word of the Lord into my environment according to the prophetic word God spoke to me, according to what the Bible said to me, and I can re-shift this; but in order for me to re-shift my environment I have to also rethink. I have to think the thoughts of what it needs to look like according to God’s pattern and will for my life, because if you try to do something without thinking it and having the renewed mind, it is not going to happen.

Doug: Yes, this is powerful. So, basically, that is transforming our thinking, you know, transforming our minds as the apostle Paul says, right? I was with someone last week who just cracked me up. She said, “Do you know what we are suffering from is a bunch of BS—bad belief systems.” You know, it is, and we get so much of that, the religious teachings and things like that, you know? That is why I love your ministry. I love your message. Why don’t you just tell us more about it?

Jeremy: Sure, absolutely. Well, we will continue pretty much what we are talking about. There is something that God put in my heart a while back and I think this will help people because I know sometimes, if you are like me, it is hard when you were raised in a religious environment and you were raised in a religious traditional zone that keeps you at a place where in order to truly be humble, you have to consider yourself to be the lowliest of the scum of the Earth. And I think that is really what religion keeps us and binds us to. But knowing that as sons of God we are called to mimic the Son; we are called to actually be the carbon copy of the original and do exactly what He says. Yet, when He says, you know, greater works shall you do ... that is a place where it is body, soul and spirit. That means greater works I can do in all realms of my life and so nothing is too impossible for me. So here is what I tell people. It is time for us to not be ‘facers of reality’ but to be ‘creators of reality,’ because you are not called to face your reality. ‘If you are sick in body and you do not face it, well that is just reality. You need to learn to face it.’ No. You are not called to face reality; you are called to create reality. So if God says, “By My stripes you were healed,” God said, “You are the head and not the tail,” “you are above and not beneath,” “you are the healed of the Lord,” “let the redeemed say so,” then we have to start saying so. And in order for us to say so we have to bring the power of declaration in by what—by creating the reality of not some, you know, hocus pocus that we have never seen or heard of, but that in which we know that the painter, the architectural design, the artist in us called Christ sees it. That is why everyone has to be prophetic because everyone is prophetic and when you call upon that voice in you of Christ to say, 'You know, God, I need my world to change. I need this to change. I need to bring something forth that You already see about me, that is already in me to do it and so instead of facing it, I am going to recreate it.' That is what the Kingdom of God requires us to do if manifesting the wisdom of God in our lives in the Earth. It is just basically recreating the reality to set up a place where people can come into our sphere of influence, which means metron, into the environment (which God has graciously given to us) to make it conducive for the anointing. So when they come in our environment, automatically—bam—they are going to be changed in the moment, in the twinkle of an eye because we have already allowed the presence of God to be here, to help co-create with Him an atmosphere that will welcome people to come on in and drink from the living fountain within us.

One of the things also that I really want to really bring to people is, you know, when we say impossible, and I want us to focus on the word impossible for a moment, not that I normally would tell people to focus on a negative word but when we look at the word impossible, if you break it down the only thing that is missing or that is before possible is the 'im', in other words the I AM. So what makes something possible is when you take the I AM or the 'im' before it, in other words incorporating God within you to know that you can do all things through Christ. So that is why people have to understand that when we say, you know, "I have to re-create my environment." I have to re-create, you know, like Jeremy and Doug say, "and I have to shift the atmosphere." Well, the only way to do that is not on your own works and not on your own mind and not on your own way of thinking (through education or whatever) but in order to make something possible you have to take the 'im' or the I AM of God and put Him first. The only thing that makes things possible is the I AM and that way we understand that He is the creator and we are the co-creator and the only thing that makes it possible is putting the I AM that I AM right before the possible and then all things are going to be able to be changed in your life. So that sort of helps people to see how, 'oh, I can do this.' Well, hold on a minute. You can, but God can do it greater and when you work together as a team with God, then the I AM makes it possible for you.

You know, another thing also I want people to really think about when you are dealing with this is understanding what we call the 'science of deliberate creation.' I love this—the science of deliberate creation. What this says basically is there is a deliberate—in other words, you are deliberately doing something which means all humanity (especially those who are born again, blood-bought, Holy Ghost people of God), we of all people, actually need to awaken to that reality that there is a deliberation, there is a deliberate ... a deliberate mentality that you need to have and that is that you have to deliberately create it. It is not just going to happen. You have to deliberately do it and that is why God wants us to be able to put that 'not work' before it but the 'actionary' process of faith to say, "Do you know what, God really—I have to do that, I have to change this. I have to really make my life conducive to what God said about me and the lifestyle God has for me as far as the destiny, the career, the family, the husband, the wife, the children. I have to deliberately do this.

How I tell people in life coaching when we are talking about the signs of deliberate creation is I say ... You know, I talk to so many young ladies who always say, "Man, I have been praying for a husband. I have been wanting a husband for so long." This is where it sort of gets them excited but it sort of, you know, at first sort of disappoints them because I say, "Okay, you want to hear the word of the Lord?" and they are like, "Yes, I want to hear the word of the Lord on how to get a spouse" and I say, "Okay, are you ready? The Bible says, 'He who finds a wife finds a good thing,'" and they are like, "Agh, I did not want to hear that." I said, "Because if you think about it," I said, "it is all great because it forces us to deliberately start creating what it is that we want, that we know God has promised us." What that means is this. The Bible says draw near to Him and He will draw near to us so we cannot expect God to do everything for us when He says, 'Ahh, first rule of thumb, you have to draw near to Me. If you draw near to Me and you put some action behind that and you show Me that you are hungering and you are thirsting after righteousness and then I am going to come down and I am going to fill you full. In fact, I am not just going to fill you full, I am going to give you an overflow.'

So the first thing with dealing with even people who are single is do not be afraid. I do not know who I am telling this to. I feel like prophetically I just feel like I am prophesying to at least three women, actually three women and two men right now. That is that you have to be able to understand. You have been fearful for so long trying to live in a world of God is going to bring him to me in my church because I do not want to do anything, but what God is saying is He wants you to explore this amazing creation He has given you to go to the signs of deliberate creation and start creating an environment to say, 'today I am going to get on online dating; today I am going to step out by faith get some of my girlfriends, boyfriends (whatever) to come out here to my best friend's, to maybe go to a restaurant or go to a movie and then when you do it, you can align yourself for God then to attract the very spouse you are looking for ... or the best friend you are looking for because that is how God works. God does not want to spoil us rotten. He wants us to work with Him and that is how we work with Him is, "He who finds a wife." So you have to be able to ask, seek and find and knock, and when you knock that door is going to be open but you have to make yourself in a place to say, 'as a son or daughter of God, I am going to shift my atmosphere, re-create it to the way God wants it to be in my life, and I am going to get out there, walk on the water of the Spirit and then watch God do it.'

Doug: Wow! You know, I love Matthew 7:7, you just said that—ask, seek and knock. I have been looking all over the Bible and I will Google it and everything looking for ‘just to sit on the couch and wait for God to open the door’.

Jeremy: I am with you. ‘Let me be a couch potato, God. You just bring it to me,’ you know. But, you know, Doug, that is the whole, that is where attraction versus creation comes into play for us because that is where people get confused because attracting means you have to get in ‘the whole’, you know, people say ‘the whole vibe’ which is nothing more than getting in the will of God, getting in that place where you are aligned, where the water flow falls. If we think that is new age then we would have to say that what happens when we see a waterfall (let’s say out in nature) and we want to, you know, get underneath it to get the water to fall on us—which is the same principle. You are aligning yourself to the vibration of where the flow is. You are aligning yourself to where the outpouring is, and we do it with ... The other day when you were in Phoenix, you know, I think with David Herzog. People who came there were creating an environment to watch God move, but they had to be able to align under the waterfall in order to receive from God and that was their initiative of that verse we talked about as drawing near to God and then all of a sudden God—bam—just draws near to us. So that is why creating versus attracting is different because attracting is aligning and getting in the flow, getting where you are supposed to be in order for you to birth forth the baby just like birds do and so many other creatures in the Earth.

I will give you another great idea that you guys would love. I hope I am not giving too much. I hope I am not giving too much, but I was watching a show the other day on the magnetism, the magnetic field over the earth. Did you know, very interesting enough, did you know that dogs, the reason why dogs (and it was a proven fact) that dogs will circle around and around and around before they use the bathroom, is because literally what they do is they have to face the north. They really do. It is built into certain animals, and cows are the same way, that there are certain animals that actually have to face [north] because they are so extremely sensitive that they have to face the north of the magnetic field and that is when they use the bathroom. They have videotaped thousands of animals that do that because they are that keen and sensitive. I thought if an animal is that sensitive, imagine the power of what it means in us to have a renewed mind of Christ, to be sensitive to the power of the Holy Spirit, to align ourselves to, ‘Father God, what is it, where is it You want me to be, what is it You want me to be doing?’ and then basically that attracting and aligning and then creating.

So that is why I am saying if we see the flow of birds in the air flying at an amazing rate (that I know that all of us have wondered about but are scared to question), how on Earth can they shift within a millisecond—I mean, hundreds of birds in a millisecond—because there is something that they know that us as human beings who are entitled to tap into the spirit realm of God do not. They know something that obviously we have not caught onto yet and yet we should know it greater and know how to tap into the supernatural of the presence of Almighty God. That is where we have to learn to understand, ‘Father, I have to align myself, show me how,’ and He will. ‘Father, show me how to create,’ and He will.

Doug: This is so good. I did not know that about dogs. Wow!

Jeremy: Isn't it amazing?

Doug: I have seen some dogs that do not know where to go to the bathroom but ...

Jeremy: It is amazing. There are a lot of things, and that is where when I look at dogs and I look at cows and I look at different animals, that is where the Bible makes it plain. If you notice, I will sort of throw a lot of scripture out there on these different points and principles to where people understand it is biblical but that is where we understand where the scripture says, “Creation is moaning, it is groaning, it is crying out,” and the greatest thing that I know you know as well, Doug, is it is not crying out for Jesus to return. He is returning in us right now. In fact, He has already returned in those who are born again Christians. What I mean by that is we are awakened to do the greater works; so creation is waiting on us to arise, awaken to the reality of our destiny, awaken to the anointing, awaken to alignment, and awaken to co-creating in Christ and that is what creation is waiting for. It is crying out. So creation literally has an emotion. There is an emotion to creation. If creation has an emotion that shows us that the Earth is crying, literally it is crying through an emotional response waiting on us to arise as sons and daughters of the Almighty God and manifest that Kingdom on Earth. So it is great when you see these things of science and they talk about the universe and the cosmos and the animals and the mountains and the valleys, and they are talking about all this stuff. All they are doing is showing us prophetically that the Earth is begging us, ‘please, children of God, arise into sonship.’

Doug: Wow! This is so good.

Jeremy: That is why I am so excited.

Doug: Yes, I am excited. I love that you ... Every time I get around you I am taking notes, I am growing all the time. That is what that is, you know? I see things in the spiritual realm and I have to look them up or look on TV to understand what was going on. So what you are talking about is so necessary. I love the sonship part. I love this thing about creating and attracting the prophetic word and renewing our minds. It is so powerful, Jeremy.

Well, you know, I just want to give you a chance if you have a prophetic word or anything for our listeners.

Jeremy: Sure. Absolutely, absolutely, because actually I was praying earlier and God was sort of already just shaking it in me. I do want to contact, and when I contact I mean as far as speaking to this lady. I do not know her but I kept on getting 'Bethany' and you are called 'Beth'. I do not know who you are but God just really spoke to me a second ago and said to Beth that He is beginning to actually reshape a situation going on with a boss of yours and I felt in my spirit very strong that there is some disagreement and it is almost to the place where you are unhappy on your job. In fact, you are being sort of, I do not want to use the word tarnished but you are sort of being harassed (for lack of better words) of some people from coworkers and the Lord showed me that He is about to literally shift your atmosphere at work and literally take some people out and even putting them in other departments. In fact, the Lord even says it will be a sign to you when you see another lady near you beginning to leave because she is going to get fired because God is going to start cleaning house for you.

Another thing I kept on seeing was I kept on getting 'Tom' or 'Thomas' in my spirit and what God was showing me through that for 'Tom' or 'Thomas' was there is a level of depression that he has been moving under. I am not going to target medication or anything because if you are on medication then, you know what, then praise God, use wisdom, stay on it unless God or doctors tell you otherwise. But what I felt in my spirit is there is a depressive spirit that has been harassing you for a couple of years and the Lord showed me that this season He is literally eradicating the enemy. And I also felt in my spirit he has been speaking a lot of things to you negatively about how you will never make it, you will never survive, that is why your family left you. And the Lord showed me that He is actually going to bring reconciliation back to your family and I feel like you and your wife are separated and the Lord showed me very plain that God is about to put you both back together but, as God said, you knew in your heart God put you both together. She knew it but there are some disagreements, there are some things going on, but God says He is about to restore back your joy and give back your family to you.

Actually, I have one more. Is that okay, Doug?

Doug: Go for it.

Jeremy: Awesome. Another thing I also felt in my spirit was I kept on seeing two sisters. I do not know who you are and I kept on getting like a Carly or a Carla but there are two sisters who actually follow your ministry, Doug, and I felt almost like a Mary and Martha type of thing. But the Lord showed me that these two sisters and one of them your name is Carly or Carla, but God says it is time to arise because God says He has been talking to both of you about starting a ministry as sisters. I felt like God was saying even that is why you sing, Carla, but you sort of felt as if it was not that good, nobody pays attention. But the Lord says it is time for you to begin to release your vocal cords. In fact, your sister has been encouraging you for so long to start a ministry and for you to sing but you are just like, 'nah, I don't do that, I don't sing like so and so,' but the Lord says you are going to set people free with your voice and that God says it is time for you as sisters to arise and start the ministry God called you to.

Now, I just want to really quick even just say because I wanted to bring forth a word for you, Doug, for your ministry because I felt like God wanted to do that for the listeners to hear to where you guys can all be in agreement with me. I felt in my spirit very strong that God even said that it is a new season for you where not only will there be an open door of revival coming within side of you before it comes outwardly, but the Lord also showed me that He is also—and I do not know and you know I do not know this, Doug, at all but I felt like there were like, I do not know if it is in-laws, outlaws, you know, but there are different distant people of cousins and I got aunts and uncles in my spirit, but I felt in my spirit God says He is beginning to awaken a lot of family members. And the Lord says you are going to find more of a team, I kept on getting the word 'team ministry.' God says there is going to be a team ministry where you are going to get more family support. You are going to get people awakening to what you are and who you are and I also felt very interesting enough to me that there is an inheritance of an anointing upon you that comes from your dad's side that and I kept on hearing people snoring. God says, on your father's side people were snoring for a long time (in the sense of spiritually). But God is awakening them like crazy and like crazy awakening a lot of them in the sense of awakening the anointing to be passed down and so you are going to start getting more of an inheritance of an anointing that comes from your father's side. The Lord told me to say this in front of people because the Lord says in your ministry this year there is going to be also a new open door and I kept on hearing like a name change. I do not know if it is for your main ministry but I kept on seeing the Lord says there are other things coming under the umbrella. I just kept on seeing the umbrella expanding like crazy and God said, "Entities, new open doors of entities, new substances, new things coming under your ministry that will begin to house other people, even overseas." God said you have been strong here in the nation of America and you are strong in the western hemisphere, but God says He is going to open up some doors for you in Asia and in Europe more. And for some reason I felt like God says there has been a dry spell to some degree within the other side of the world with your ministry, but God says He is about to open up those doors. Interestingly enough, we have never talked about this, but I feel like God kept on saying train up on your Spanish; because the Lord says that He is going to use you in some areas of literally beginning to just go out there. And then people are going to begin to come into your ministry and support you financially. But there is going to be a huge influx, a really huge influx of money coming to you because I felt like God says it is long overdue for what you have done for so many years to the least of these. And the Lord is showing me really quick, He says what you have done to the least of these, He is going to give it back to you of what you have done; and what has been done in secret is about to be revealed in the light. The Lord says even other prophetic ministers and I got that vision of Joseph where God says even other prophetic ministers will come to you and say almost like, you know, like the dream he had, they will come to you and say, 'Well, I didn't ever really realize that we are here to be taught by you. It is not the fact that you are here to be taught by us, we are here to be taught by you.' So God is going to give you such a supernatural presence to be able to even just teach even the teachers because God said that is your spiritual promotion, is getting into that place where teachers and leaders will come to you and say, 'I am dry, I need a thirsting, I need some water' and you are going to feed them in this season ... is what the Lord showed me.

Doug: Wow! So, do you know what? You have no idea. This speaks so much to me and, you know, I will be unpacking more of that later on; but even behind the scenes we are doing some things that he is talking about here. Of course, I always say you never have any secrets when you are around the prophets, right? That is so powerful.

You know, we were talking ahead of time and I just released a prophetic word about the winds of change coming and I felt that for Jeremy and his ministry, that the winds of change are coming and hitting your ministry. You are going to see change. I felt a geographic change but I was not sure if it is limited to that, you know, because we do not even know what that means. It does not mean that you have to up and move, but there is definitely some realignment coming. I saw you aligning with a whole new group of people who are going to open up people, like-minded; birds of a feather flock together. You have been in there just doing the stuff. You have not backed down. You have stayed with it and now the Lord has promoted you, and I saw this on your last birthday. I gave you a word about this intimacy coming to you, about Solomon's garden, and about just the intimate things of the Lord opening up to you; and that is what is taking place right now and I can even feel it in your spirit, man. I can just feel that the Lord has been talking to you personally. This is so, so deep.

Well, we have been talking to Jeremy Lopez of Identity Network, identitynetwork.com, and you can go to his website. I want to encourage you to support his ministry. Check out his books, his courses, he has online schools, he has the prophetic schools, he has all kinds of stuff. How many books - 26 books?

Jeremy: 27 at the moment.

Doug: 27. Wow! That is amazing. Man, I don't know how you do it but every time I got around and I picked up on that. You know, really the Lord started speaking to me about it. I am a writer. I write every day, you know, and I am not releasing anything. And then I got an anointing and now I am doing four books a year since you prayed for me and prophesied over me.

Jeremy: I love it. I love it.

Doug: Yes, so there is a special anointing.

Anything else you want to release about your ministry?

Jeremy: Well, if you don't mind, I really just ... I was actually asking the Lord asking if I should say this until you opened the door. My left arm has just ... When you just said that a second ago my left arm just went numb and I had severe pain. And the moment God told me to recognize it, I felt like God showed me just really quick that there is someone who goes numb in their arm, their left arm especially (a lot), and their arm is really weak. I wanted to talk about the ministry but God said no, do this and the moment I acknowledged it—it completely went away. But for some reason there is somebody's arm that is just very numb and it is just very weak in them so God just said He is healing it today. In fact, right now I just feel like God is releasing honestly an anointing upon your arm to strengthen it.

So I wanted to share that as opposed to the ministry part, but I encourage everyone: (if they can) I would love to prophesy to all of them. Doug, if you don't mind just let me tell this to the people. We do ask for donations and let me also tell you why. We do not sell prophetic words. We are totally against that but we love people who love to give to our ministry to help me out because we love more than anything to support people who have nothing. We have missions work and so we just ask if you can help us and give a donation we are going to believe God that you will get the best word ever, in Jesus' name.

Doug: That is right and I agree with that. You know, it goes against some of the BS or the belief systems of the church. You know, I just believe that a prophet is worth his due, is worth his work and everything. Jeremy's heart—I mean, I just love it. I love ... I want to encourage you to reach out and get a prophetic word. I tell you, everybody, I mean it is 100 percent, is 'blow-away' and you are prophesying even to some of my friends here in Hollywood. A producer even told me, "Oh my goodness, he is blowing me away. I can't believe this." I just want to encourage you, go to identitynetwork.net.

Our time is up but I am so, so excited for you. Thank you so much, Jeremy.

Jeremy: Oh, it was a blessing to be with you guys, it really was.

Doug: All right. You will catch us next week at dougaddison.com.
