

How Positive Prayer Can Change You & Your World

Doug Addison with Jonathan Ngai [Episode 81]

February 13, 2019

Hey, friends. Welcome to another Spirit Connection podcast. This week I'm going to be talking about something that's kind of ... It's better caught than taught, but I do have some teaching on it and it's going to open the heavens over you. It's going to bring some encouragement to you. We need to do this right now, because there's so much negativity going on out there and you don't want to buy into that. You don't want to be dragged down. I also have a special guest coming on that's going to really change your life, because he carries such a strong anointing for shifting the spiritual atmosphere—he and his wife. So, I'm excited about that so stay with us.

Lord, we pray right now: On Earth as it is in Heaven. We pray that You would bring that to us. We pray right now for every bad negative situation—we know that that's not the reality. That's not the reality of things. That's the attacks of Satan, the attacks of the devil. We just say right now: Lord, bring Your reality. Bring it into our lives. I pray right now for each person who is suffering. I just ask for just an impartation of love, joy and understanding and revelation to open things up ... Because once you understand—in Jesus' name—once you understand things, that really helps.

When I'm in a ... I tend to get into a cloudy time. If I do, I just start praying and decreeing verses and asking the Lord, "Open up now. Give me understanding." Once I ... If I understand something then, you know ... If I'm suffering ... if I understand the purpose behind it, you know, then that helps. Or if something happens to you, someone hurt you or something like that ... If you understand what had happened, then it helps, right? So, we're going to pray right now for understanding. I believe God's going to open up the ability to understand the timing and the season, the different things that are going on right now.

I talk a lot about shifting the spiritual atmosphere, well, because we're under a negative one. I mean, there's so much negativity out there. The reason is too many people are agreeing together with grumbling, complaining and not actually agreeing with the Lord. And where two agree together, it will be done. So, if you agree with something, there's also a spiritual principle found in the Bible verse about what you sow, therefore you shall reap (Galatians 6:7; paraphrased).

So, those two verses—what you sow you shall reap; if you're sowing grumbling, complaining—maybe you might not realize you are. Ask God to show you. Ask people around you. Start listening. Here's what's going to happen. If you start this journey with me or maybe if you've been doing it with our regular tribe, I tell you, God's going to open it up for you. I always ask Him, "Lord, show me. Do I have any negative words?" Like when Jesus cursed the fig tree, you know, those were withering words. He caused the fig tree to wither and bear fruit no more based on His words. So, we can have this. He even said this. "You know, you can do this too," Jesus says. I don't think people realize what He meant by that. He's saying it's not like a positive thing. He's saying you have to be careful with your words because you can speak over yourself or other people. You can wither and bear fruit no more. He said, "Or you can say to this mountain, 'Be moved and thrown into the sea and it will.'" So, there's just power in your words. There's power in coming into agreement with the Word of God. There's power in prayer as well, power in worship.

I know, for a number of years, I've been out doing outreach and, you know, I've been helping a lot of people discover how God speaks to them, how to discover your destiny. I've been doing a lot of stuff like that, but it wasn't until just a couple of years ago the Lord started changing my focus. For a number of years, I mean, I've been doing this "love not judge" lifestyle, encouraging people to step away from the negative things, because that's what opens the heavens over you. It will shift the heavens. Things will open. I tell you, you step away from them. I've been doing that for years, but it wasn't until recently that I actually started combining this with prayer and worship.

There was something about prayer, worship and the positive side of the Kingdom. It was like a three-strand cord (Ecclesiastes 4:12), prayer, worship and joy or love and kindness, those types of things. It was something that opened the heavens greater than I've ever, ever, ever experienced. So, there's something about it.

I tell you, what you want to do is come into agreement with these things. How you do that is find some Bible verses that actually speak about your situation. You know, you can actually do an internet search. You can Google it if you need to. Just, there's tons and tons of lists of Bible verses if you need healing, if you need encouragement, if you need to break through fear.

I recommend getting a couple of Bible verses that you can speak or pray each day. That's called decreeing. I do this. I've been decreeing Colossians 1:26, that the mysteries would be open to me. I've been decreeing and praying it every day for two years and suddenly two years later it shows up. I'm getting revelation, so much revelation I can hardly keep up and the mysteries are now opening. So, sometimes it doesn't happen immediately, so don't get discouraged.

I went through a season of affliction. Believe me, I was decreeing verses, but it took time. Now sometimes your healing can be instant. Sometimes you can be released from a season instantly, but other times you have to walk it out. Either way, just know that God's love for you is real, it never changes. His Word for you works. Worshipping works. You know, the power of encouragement works. The power of love works. These things are real. I recommend reading 1 Corinthians 13 besides at a wedding; you know, reading that, getting that into your spirit and asking the Lord to begin to change things.

Now, I had a dream a number of years ago I had forgotten about. Back in 2011 we were living in Santa Maria, California, and the Lord had called us there. We knew that we were called back to California and, you know, Bob Jones, he's in Heaven now, but he called me up and says, "The Lord's going to move you, but I'm not going to tell you where. I want you to hear the Lord," and so I did. I heard the Lord, you know, "What ship was Christopher Columbus on?" Oh, it was the Santa Maria, so we moved to Santa Maria. Now, things are starting to happen there now, but when we were there before it was kind of early on and we had to be kind of the groundbreakers and I had to open the heavens up. I had more angelic encounters there than any place on Earth and, you know, to me it's not about the encounters. It's got to be about the relationship, but the encounters can help you. Once you develop love, once you start to love yourself, love God, love other people—that's what Jesus said is the greatest thing you could ever possibly do. Once you do that, then you start coming into agreement with the principles of Heaven and everything is going to change for you. I tell you, it definitely will.

I had this dream that I had forgotten about until just last year. In 2011, I dreamed that I was in a city that looked like Los Angeles, living on a hill that overlooked LA. And I saw the number that's in my actual home address right now that's been for the last few years. I saw that number as well and I knew that there was something significant and it was details about it that was going to help me get set free.

In the dream, I went to my wife and I said, "You know, there's a woman that's going to help us. In 2011 I wasn't sick or anything, but when I had this dream a long time ago it was sealed away and then the Lord showed me later and this is what He's doing now. He's going to bring out revelation to you. And in the dream, I was in the house with the number that I'm living in right now, looking over Los Angeles, and I said to my wife, "Oh, there's a woman that's going to help us and she's been in prison." I didn't know Katie Souza at the time but, sure enough, Katie Souza came along who had been in prison and has an amazing ministry, helped me. Her ministry and others, but hers pretty much, they really helped restore me with a lot of prayer and stuff.

So, all right, what I'm trying to say is I got into alignment with Heaven. I got into love, I got into worshipping the Lord and then I had this breakthrough and I believe God's going to do this for you. I believe the Lord is going to move you into a new season and, like me, I tell you, everything lined up all at once. Everything was already there. It took a while, but the breakthrough, when it happened, my healing came quick. It took a few years to get there. I'm praying right now that won't happen with you, that God's going to align things for you.

There are some stories. Like, when I'm telling you the story, it is because I want to build your faith right now, so that you're not speaking to the fig tree and withering your fruit or people around you. It's easy to do right now because you can get hopeless with all the stuff going on and everything in the world and the negativity. It's easy to do. You don't want to wither your fruit and say, you know, "Bear fruit no more." You want to now speak to your situation like you would the mountain, "Be moved and be thrown into the sea." I tell you, there are breakthroughs coming and you can shift the spiritual atmosphere.

So, I'm going to just, just let that soak into you for a minute because, you know, when you tell stories, like when people give healing testimonies. The reason they do is because healing angels show up and I'm telling the story and even as I'm saying it right, now there are angels of breakthrough showing up wherever you are. I don't know if you can feel them. It doesn't matter if you can feel them. They're there. In fact, they're here with me right now.

So, Lord, we just ask things to open, open, open. Yes, let it come right now. There we go.

Now, I've got a special guest. I wanted to seed the atmosphere first with this, get the angels ready, but this is a person who helped me as well, he and his wife. It's Jonathan Ngai. They're the cofounders of Radiance International. This is the Hollywood House of Prayer. Now, maybe you remember. I had his wife, Sharon Ngai, on the podcast. You'll want to go and look that one up, because it was so powerful, and she talks about how they shifted the spiritual atmosphere over Hollywood and what they do with the Hollywood House of Prayer. He also came out ... Be and Sharon came when I was in a difficult time. I was in Arizona being ministered to by Katie Souza's ministry, because I was going through a hard time. They came here on our land, prayed—we don't own the land, we rent it—but they came here and prayed at that house where it overlooks LA. And they broke off some things off the land and it actually shifted everything within two hours. And a short time later, I was able to come back home and chemical sensitivity was gone, and they were part of the process. In other words, they've got authority. Anyway, I'm so excited to have him on the broadcast.

Doug: Jonathan, welcome to the broadcast. How are you doing, man?

Jonathan: I'm doing great. Thanks for having me on, Doug. It's an honor to be on.

Doug: Yes, we met a number of years ago. We've done some meetings together and it's just such a good, rich, rich relationship we've had, but little time. Every time I get around you, I feel like we've known each other for a very long time.

Jonathan: Yes. Yes, well, I want to thank you. I know you came out to Hollywood and really pioneered a lot of things in prayer and the prophetic out where God eventually called us. So, we're, you know, we're just privileged to link arms with you and be a part of what God's doing in the story of things in Hollywood.

Doug: Yes, and you are ... I mean, my goodness, we were kind of like the groundbreakers years ago when we first came here then we moved away, you know, and came back. But you guys definitely are sowing, you're reaping, you're doing so much. It's so nice. Tell us a little bit about your ministry and what you do.

Jonathan: Yes. We're, we're Radiance International. We're first and foremost a house of prayer. The Lord called us at the end of 2010 to lay down our church. We had a church out in another part of Los Angeles, and the Lord spoke very clearly that we needed to move to Hollywood, which is the heart of the City of Los Angeles. And so, in 2011 we moved into the CBS Studios and started a house of prayer. There were just 12 of us. I think it was like the Lord's wisdom. You know, we were ... One of the prayers that we prayed ... Because didn't particularly want to come to Hollywood. Right?

Doug: Yes.

Jonathan: Lord, if You want us here, like, bring us to a place where we can really bring transformation from the root. That's actually the literal prayer that we prayed probably 50 times and so we actually went on a huge search to ... We tried to find a location and couldn't find anything and one of our friends said, "Hey, have you tried out the original CBS Studios?" So, we actually went there. We were able to get in there and we actually started in a little room right above where they filmed I Love Lucy, which was really the beginning, you know, of Hollywood.

Doug: Yes.

Jonathan: It was the first studio in Hollywood and so we spent 18 months praying there and then the Lord moved us to the Sunset Strip in 2013 and that's where we are now. You know, we're a house of prayer. We've probably prayed about 45,000 hours in the city, just really praying for the people of...

Doug: Yes.

Jonathan: ... Hollywood, those who have been called to the industry.

Doug: I don't know if you realize, just listeners, I've been there and they're not just on the Sunset Strip. I mean, they're really in the heart of things, Whiskey a Go-Go and the Hustler. You guys, isn't it like right across the street is the Hustler club?

Jonathan: Yes. So we're, we've been doing night and day prayer and that's like what we see from the window.

Doug: Yes. Yes.

Jonathan: It's quite a sight.

Doug: Yes, and, boy, the anointing is so strong in your building and it radiates. That's why you're Radiance, I'm sure, but it radiates out. I've been there. I know and I just say, wow, this is the real deal, everybody. This is so exciting. This is stuff I wish I could be doing, you know, in a sense if God ever called me to a house of prayer. I would love to do it what you guys are doing it. So, yes, just tell us a little bit more.

Jonathan: Yes. We're just ... We're so grateful for God's presence there. I think my wife was on a couple of months ago, but our house of prayer used to be a porn studio for 7 years and then ... So, when we moved in there ... Like, when we first were looking for a space the Lord highlighted this building and so we ... When we first walked in there the first time, it was like ... It had all the remnants of the studio of what it was used in the past. We were like, "Man, this is like the craziest place that we stepped foot in." But as we were there looking at the space, like, we also felt the anointing of God. He said, "This is where you're going to set up a house of prayer." It's really about shifting what, you know, the world or what the enemy has meant for His plan and to really return it back into the plan of the Kingdom. So, that was kind of our introduction into Hollywood. You know, like I said, prayer has always been the mandate, like that we would just pray for the industry, pray for film, pray for music, pray for TV and media, and then as we've been there, the Lord just began to birth different things out of this place of prayer.

You know, my wife started Justice Speaks, which is an anti-human trafficking organization, and now she's one of the frontline voices in this issue, in this fight against human trafficking. We've also started over 30 houses of prayer on college campuses. So, like, especially here in Southern California, like USU, UCLA, UC Irvine, Biola, U of Pacific. Like, many of the major campuses all have a house of prayer.

Doug: Wow.

Jonathan: That's also birthed out of this place of prayer. It's really a vision the Lord planted as we've been praying, you know, at Radiance. Then just a few years ago was really when, when enterprise began to get birthed, which was really unexpected.

You know, we, we never thought that we would like actually start businesses there. But right when we first moved into the Sunset Strip, we probably received 3 or 4 prophetic words about music there. And so even as we were just kind of studying the history of the Sunset Strip ... Like we are right, like Doug said, we're like right smack in the center. The Sunset Strip is like 1.6 miles. We're probably like right in the middle of it all where the three biggest clubs—the Roxy, the Whiskey a Go-Go and the Viper Room—are. So, people were telling us that this is the launching pad of music. Like, everyone that's, you know, become a global name in music, whether they're an individual or a band. They all played here and they all got launched here and there's going to be music. God was going to birth Kingdom music and it was going to go all around the world.

You know, when we started hearing those prophetic words, you know, my wife and I just looked at each other and said, "You know, neither of us sing, neither of us play music." We're like, "I don't know what's going to happen here."

Long story short, as we've just kept praying ... I mean, one of the biggest things we've been doing is really praying for the music industry and so the Lord just began to bring musicians in—producers, writers, singers—and before long we started a studio upstairs. It's called Upper Room Studios. It's a state-of-the-art studio. We spent a couple of hundred thousand dollars building it out and now we have a lot of people from the industry that are using the studio, creating music, and we're building relationship with them. Then we started a music label around that same time, but we were kind of not doing much with it until this year. We signed our first artist and so now we're starting to really release music into the world, which we're really excited about, because we feel like that's the ... That's the language of this generation and we just really want to, want to just release God's heart through song, you know, to this generation.

Doug: Yes. That's powerful. You know, not only that, what I notice is that you're in relationship with people, you know, and that seems to shift things. You know, like a father and mother to people on the street and people in need and then, you know, plus the business side of it. So, it's kind of birthed out of this whole more of a family type of thing. It invites people in.

Jonathan: Yes. Yes. You know, we're like in a place on the Strip, because the Roxy's like two buildings from us. A lot of times when we're doing evangelism, reaching people, you know, sometimes people send teams out and we don't have to go anywhere. Like there's ... If there's a big concert ...

Doug: Right.

Jonathan: Like U2 just had a concert. I think it was a, well, probably a little over a year ago, but they had just filled out, you know, stadiums worldwide and then they did a show at the Roxy and the line was just all the way down the street and, you know, right in front of our House of Prayer, there's like 50 people just waiting to get in the building. So, yes. It's been so amazing the opportunities that the Lord's given to us to just minister to people ...

Doug: Yes.

Jonathan: ... that are there, people that are called.

Doug: I just have to tell this story, because I just remembered it and it just stuck with me so much. The last time I went to speak there, at the House of Prayer, I was doing evangelism training and I was talking about outreach and prophetic outreach and tattoo interpretation and, you know, the stuff that I do. And what happened is I went there, I got there before you guys, and I came in and there was this young girl there. You could tell she, you know, she had been, you know, traveled and had no place to sleep and she had her backpack with her, and she had arrived in Hollywood with no place to go. She wasn't a believer or anything and so someone had let her spend the night there. I'm just talking with her, setting up. I don't even think she realized that it was Christian. I don't know what happened. So, she stays for this leadership meeting I'm doing on outreach training. She hears me talk about the tattoo interpretation and she's like suddenly on fire. She's saying, "Yes!" ...

Jonathan: Wow.

Doug: ... and she shows a tat. We interpret her tat. And that to me ... It was like, "Wow." That's where the rubber meets the road, you know, where you can actually have an unbeliever come into a Christian training meeting and be excited for the Lord.

Jonathan: Yes. Yes, and I feel like this is what God is doing, you know, even this year. It's 2019. Like, we just feel like God is bringing the church into the center of culture. In fact, I've been so encouraged. There are like little houses of prayer that are springing up in some of the most vibrant places in cities, big or small. And I feel like God is calling the church outside the walls and to just really go to where culture is, because a lot of these people that are coming to the house of prayer, many of them are not saved. Many of them, you know, sometimes they hear music, sometimes different things, but they're just attracted to the presence of God and if we provide a space for them to come, they're hungry. You know, they search far and wide, you know, for different things, new age, you know, whatever it is, but at the end of the day their hearts are searching for the Lord. And for them to have a place where they can find the Lord and encounter His presence ... I feel like that's a huge shift that God is bringing to the body of Christ in this time.

Doug: Yes. I've always felt the, you know, that the healing rooms and the houses of prayer are really sitting on a gold mine evangelistically ...

Jonathan: Yes. Yes.

Doug: ... and you guys are one of the few that I've seen that are actually doing it and it's amazing.

Jonathan: Yes. Well, Doug, like a quick story. You know, one of the things that we started doing—this was about 2 years ago—you know, we were a house of prayer for 3-1/2 straight years, nonstop. And then we just felt the tug of the Lord about opening up our space and doing a venue night at Radiance, which was kind of unheard of. You know, we spent so much time trying to build up the place with Heaven, and then we're there. And then we felt like, you know, we wanted to open up this place specifically to build relationships with those that are in the community, mostly the artist community.

So, we talked to our board about it and they were like, "Okay. You know, if you really feel this is the Lord, we'll support you," and so we started something called Night Light on Thursday nights. You know, we have a lot of artists that are touring and, you know, they're connected with a lot of people that are in the industry that are doing great things. And so, we just started at that. "Okay, let's just invite a few people to come to sing." We just want to give people a platform to release their gift and also, you know, give opportunity to come—friends and family, whether they're saved or not, to come and to just be there for the night.

So, we started that and then the Lord just began blowing on it. And so, you know, before a year was out, like we had probably about 20 finalists from The Voice, from American Idol, from The Four on Fox. It was phenomenal.

Doug: That's amazing.

Jonathan: Yes. The artists were coming. You know, some old bands. Like Air Supply came and played one night to a packed house. And so, it's just interesting, because we're in a place where it's the launching pad of music and then the Lord just gave us the vision. "Like, why don't you just release the Kingdom and have people come into this space to encounter the presence of God while they're watching music?"

So, really, these last two years we've had so many guests that would step into the building. You know, because the presence of the Lord is there, they'll walk in and they'll go, "Oh, my gosh." Then when they step into the building, "What is this place? I have never seen this or felt this in a club before, but I love this vibe."

You know, there was a girl who almost won The Voice once season and she played here. And then she came up to us afterwards and she goes, "I have never felt so safe and so loved in a place." She started coming back, you know, time and time again just to watch and she says, "I just can't ..." You know, she told us one time, she says, "This is the only place in the city that I feel good about myself."

Doug: Wow.

Jonathan: So, we feel like it's kind of like ... People won't necessarily come to church events or conferences but, you know ... Some of these Thursday nights now, like 90 percent of the audience are not saved, but they're all coming into the presence of the Lord and many of them have started coming to church and several of them have gotten saved and a lot of seeds have been planted.

I feel like this is part of the new. It's kind of like, you know, I'm just remembering. I think it's 1 Samuel 18–19 or something, when Samuel and the prophets were at Naioth and, you know, David was with them. And Saul sent people to come and take David. And Saul himself went to try to ... try to capture David and to kill him. But when they came under the atmosphere of the prayer and the prophetic, like, they began to prophesy. Their lives began to change and I feel like it's something that God is beginning to call the church to set an atmosphere, you know, through worship, through the prophetic, through prayer, that, you know, God is there and when people walk into that place they'll be like, "What is this place?" Actually, like, so many people are going to meet the Lord unexpectedly because the Kingdom is out where culture is. So, yes. It's exciting to see what the Lord's doing.

Doug: Yes. I love this, man. I get so excited. I have to come down more actually. I can't wait.

Jonathan: Anytime, Doug. Anytime.

Doug: I'm looking forward to it. So, is there anything the Lord's been speaking to you about for 2019?

Jonathan: Yes. Well, the main word, and I was just touching on this, was I think during the last I would say decade or so, you know, the Lord's really begun to speak to the church about taking the seven mountains of culture. And the word that has really been ringing in our spirits is "reformation." Like, to just really ... Like, for the body of Christ to begin to really walk out the great commission: Go and make disciples of all the nations. And I feel like we're kind of in a shift where I think a lot of this teaching—probably a lot of people that are on this call have heard of the seven mountains of culture—you know: family, government, education, arts and entertainment, media, business, and then the religion/church mountain—and that we are called to touch it. We can't just get boxed in, into the church and into the ministry and, you know, just kind of live inside of that kind of bubble. But we actually need to go into these mountains and to raise up the most excellent and the most creative and we need to have, you know, superintendents of school districts creating curriculum. We need people in the top levels of government, you know, legislating and making law. We need some of the most creative and the most amazing musicians and actors and writers and directors to be in the mountain of arts and entertainment. I feel like that the message has gotten out there and people are talking about it and people are realizing that if we in the church don't start discipling the nations that, you know, the enemy is happy to and I think he, you know ... In some respects, he's done a pretty good job.

One of the words that the Lord gave to us about this new year is that we're going to start walking into not just understanding that we need to be a part of culture and that we need to, you know, bring our lives and, you know, what we do, whether it's in business or whatever we're called to, that we need to walk it out in culture to display the beauty of Jesus in the process. And to, you know, allow God to open up those doors for people to stand and to have an audience of, you know, thousands and hundreds of thousands to really hear about the goodness of the Lord. So, we feel like that's a big word that's been ringing in our spirit.

I don't know. I shared this in Dallas, Doug. I don't know if it's okay to share now but, you know, I alluded to the fact that we started a label a couple of years back. It was just kind of ... We just kind of put it on the shelf and we just prayed. We've been praying. Probably every week we pray 30–40 hours for the music industry, for God to raise up artists, you know, to really speak the message of the Kingdom. So, as we've been praying ... You know, we did an event back in October called Hollywood Arise. We erected a tent right at the gate of Hollywood, right at Hollywood and Highland, and, you know, for 72 hours we were worshiping and praying and just lifting up the name of Jesus. It was an incredible time, but we were preparing for this.

You know, we were taking meetings just really trying to get the word out for leaders and pastors from the city to join together. So, one of the meetings that we had, you know, we just met for the first time. We were just talking about Hollywood Arise (that was the name of this gathering) and then this woman walks in the door. So, we talked a little bit, meet each other for five minutes and then she walks out. Then when she leaves, the person I'm meeting with is like, "Hey, do you know who that is?" I said, "No, I don't know who that is." He goes, "Have you heard of Destiny's Child?" and I'm like, "Oh, yeah. I've heard of Destiny's Child."

Doug: Wow.

Jonathan: "Well, that's Michelle Williams from Destiny's Child." So, you know, then we just began talking, found out that she, along with, you know, her ministry, she also manages Michelle Williams and then we shared about, "Oh, hey, we're just launching off our label," and, you know, started talking about that. So, she said, "Why don't we take a meeting with your team?" and so we ended up meeting with Michelle once and then we met again and we just ... Everything just seemed to connect and at the end of the second meeting, like we decided, hey, we're going to go forward. Like, we want to work with Michelle. She's going to be the first person that our label's going to sign and we want to, you know, we want to release music that will bring hope to this generation.

So, yes, it was really crazy, but we're still working with her, you know, to do this first project and, you know ... We feel like because we've been praying, you know, and just really praying into reformation and saying, "Lord, we want to touch society, we want to touch music," that God is beginning to, you know, connect people and to just really bring Kingdom hearts and Kingdom minds that really understand and see this. I believe 2019 and beyond we're going to see some people that have been in hiding, some people that have just been, you know, praying into some of their business ideas or different things like that, that God is going to do an Isaiah 22:22 and He's going to open up a door that no man can shut ...

Doug: Come on.

Jonathan: ... and the Kingdom is just going to go forth in an accelerated way. So, yes! I mean, that's a little bit of how we're feeling as we step into this new year. We're really excited to see what God's going to do.

Doug: Yes. There's so much anointing on ... I guess ... I would just say that ... Some people would call it the breaker anointing, but I think you have an anointing to open doors. There's just so much faith with you and Sharon and your team and doors open. When you mentioned Isaiah 22:22, the key of David, it's definitely on you and it's impartible to other people. I felt like that people were going to suddenly remember things and it's going to be confirmed. Now, just so you know, before this broadcast I recorded an intro way before we even joined together and, based on what I felt like God was saying, and then I mentioned something. I mentioned a dream I had in 2011 and about how I dreamed of living where I live now with even my house number in the dream on a hill ...

Jonathan: Wow.

Doug: ... up in LA and I didn't even realize it. That's when you guys came and started, you know, the House of Prayer, right? Is it 2011?

Jonathan: Yes. It was 2011. What month did you come in or when did you have that dream?

Doug: I don't remember. I'll have to look it up.

Jonathan: Okay.

Doug: I don't remember if it was February or if it was later on. I don't remember.

Jonathan: Yes. Actually, February was when we started, when we transitioned.

Doug: Okay, it was. February is what came.

Jonathan: Wow.

Doug: So, we were living in Santa Maria and had no plans of moving to Los Angeles. I forgot all about this dream because, you know, I had a rough time once we got here. We had to call you and Sharon to come and pray over the land and, you know, you opened it up within an hour. Within two hours I had something shift over me, but in that dream ... This is what I want to say: is the Lord's going to remind people now of dreams of your past.

Jonathan: Yes.

Doug: Whether it's, you know, a dream at night, a prophetic word or a dream you've forgotten, maybe even music. I don't know what it is, but for me I forgot about that dream. The Lord reminded me that back in 2011 when I was ... Now, I'm here and the warfare got heavy. You want to get confirmation. You know, you're getting heavy warfare. You go like, "Did I do the right thing?" I know I did the right thing but, you know, you just want to hear the Lord say it to you.

He took me back to that dream. I think it was February 2011 and I was living on a house on a hill and it overlooked Los Angeles. It had the number ...

Jonathan: Wow.

Doug: ... in my address, the number was in it. And then the woman from prison came to help me, which was Katie Souza, and it's all happened and it's all happening right now and there was just something powerful about when ... I believe when you guys came here, it activated something for people to come back and it was an open-door anointing. I tell you, that was the year also—I'm just remembering this. That was the year also that the former executive producer of American Idol ... we ended up in his office and was pitching the Tattoo Prophet, you know, reality show and they did a sizzle reel. We almost actually ... There were places that wanted to sign, but I ended up hitting the wall with it. You know, stuff happened and the Lord took it a different way, but that was 2011 as well.

Jonathan: Wow.

Doug: So, when you guys came here, you had the key of David that caused people who had callings, like for us to be back here in LA. We didn't move back here until 2013, but that put something in motion. We started coming down a lot and doing taping and stuff started happening because—the Lord's showing me this right now—because of the anointing on you ... because of that key of David and the door-opening anointing that's on you. That's power, powerful.

Jonathan: Wow. Amen. Amen. Well, it's so interesting, Doug. You said in 2013 you came. That was the year when we moved to the Sunset Strip and just an interesting thing that happened. You know, when we first came in to the Strip, you know, we were going 24/7 already, because we were doing that in the CBS Studios. And then we were, were there for like two months and then all of a sudden I walked to the back parking lot of Radiance one night and then the parking attendant was just kind of like had these big eyes and in shock. He said, "Did you hear what happened tonight?" and I said, "No." He said, "Well, they announced that the Key Club," which is the biggest club on the Sunset Strip, "it just closed down out of nowhere."

Doug: Wow.

Jonathan: And he said like, "They just had a sold-out show. I don't understand what's going on and why they're shutting down." And then the Lord spoke to us

Isaiah 22:22—that He's ... that God is closing doors that no man can open. Then we did some research and the Key Club was actually a big part of the revolution. That's where death metal started.

Doug: Yes.

Jonathan: It's where heavy metal music really ...

Doug: So wild.

Jonathan: ... really came to the forefront. So, then the Lord closed that up, you know, after two months that we were there. And then later that year there was a restaurant that opened up. It was probably about three blocks, like right ... You know, as we were driving up Sunset, we always passed that area and then there was a restaurant that popped up and the name of the restaurant was The Church Key. I mean, if you just kind of think about that ... It's like, who would name their restaurant The Church Key? It was so bizarre, but we just, like, felt like that was a word. It was the other part of Isaiah 22:22—you know, God was going to shut doors that no man can open and God was going to open doors that no man can shut. And we feel like that was like the prophetic thing about the The Church Key opening. You know, just kind of like in line with what you said. Like, we feel like the Lord was giving the authority to the body of Christ to begin to unlock things, unlock dreams, unlock things that have been, you know, in waiting. You know, that even is another thing. I mean, we just spoke on this last Sunday and we just released the word for 2019 from our gathering in Dallas and one of the words was that this is the year to transition into the blessing or transition into the promises and the dreams that we have carried for so long. So, I was just reminded ... It's so interesting that it's 2013 that you came back down south, Doug ...

Doug: Yes.

Jonathan: ... and all this prophetic stuff was happening in Hollywood about Isaiah 22:22.

Doug: Yes. Absolutely. I hadn't seen this. I love this. I love this stuff. I love the Key Club closing and The Church Key opening. You see, that's eyes to see. Most people would miss it. You drive by and, oh yeah. You know, you don't even realize, but that's getting eyes to see. I tell you, there's such a strong anointing. I didn't know about, you know, the key of David with you. I just felt like you had this door-opening ability because you've done it with us. So, I just wonder if you would mind just praying and activating this over our listeners.

Jonathan: Yes. Absolutely. Father, we thank You for everything that You have put on the inside of the believer. We thank You for the dreams, we thank You for prophetic words, we thank You for confirmations and reminders, and we thank You that this is a year when You are about to release Your sons and your daughters to walk in the fullness of what You've created them for. So, Father, we just pray a prayer of blessing over everyone that is on this call and even to the body of Christ at large. Father, we pray, Lord, for favor. Father, we pray, Lord that this would be a year of the Isaiah 22:22 key of David being released into the hands of the sons and the daughters.

Father, we declare, Lord, that those things that You have placed in us—the passions, the dreams, the creativity, Lord, for entrepreneurship, for music, for films. Father, we just declare that this is a year where the dreams are going to be pulled from the spiritual realm down into reality, God, on Earth as it is in Heaven. And, Father, we pray for supernatural relationships to take place. Father, we pray for a connecting of lives of those that are supposed to walk together, to create together. Father, we pray, Lord, that You would, You would bring this covenant unity. And, Father, we pray that You would release Kingdom finances, Father, wherever there is a dream that You have placed in the hearts of Your people. Father, we pray that provision would come, God, and that there would be no more delay. Father, we just push back the spirit of delay and, Father, we declare that this is going to be the year when dreams are going to come to life, when Kingdom people are going to partner together to fund and to create and to release things into the Earth that people are going to see and be amazed at the beauty of who You are, the beauty of life, the beauty of love, the beauty of Your power.

So we just commit ourselves unto You and, Father, we just pray for activation right now, in the name of Jesus.

Doug: Wow.

Jonathan: We pray for activation. We pray for dreams, God, to come alive, God, to come back into our remembrance. And Father, we pray that we would lay hold of the things that You are highlighting, God, and that we would bring them to you, we would pray and we would so see, God, into the promises and that this year that You would amaze us, God, that this would be a year of the suddenly work of Your hand ...

Doug: Come on.

Jonathan: ... in our lives, in Jesus' name.

Doug: Yes, Lord. I receive that.

Jonathan: Amen.

Doug: Boy, it's such a powerful, powerful door opening and key anointing. It's just so good.

Jonathan: Amen.

Doug: We've been talking with Jonathan Ngai. Why don't just tell us a little bit, you know, how we can follow you, if you have anything to offer, websites, social media.

Jonathan: Yes. We're on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter. On Facebook we're at Radiance International. On Twitter we're at RadianceIntl and I believe on Instagram we're at Radiance International as well.

So, yes, we just actually just started a YouTube channel at the beginning of this year, so we're going to start posting more, possibly doing some blogs. We have a Sunday morning expression when the House of Prayer community all comes together to worship. So, the messages will be online on the YouTube channel. Yes, James Goll was just here with us this past Sunday. So, we just want to release content so the body of Christ can see what's happening in Hollywood and just really join with us in prayer. So, we would so appreciate it if you guys could do that.

Doug: Yes. I'm excited. I'm looking forward to coming back down and we'll see what goes on. I haven't been able to do some local LA meetings, but I'm ready now.

Jonathan: Yes. We'd love to have you out, Doug.

Doug: That'd be great. Looking forward to it.

Jonathan: Let's plan it out.

Doug: Catching up with you and Sharon.

All right. It's been an exciting time and watch for doors to open. Watch for dreams, because that's what started. This was a prophetic act. The Lord used that dream. It came back and popped in my spirit before this broadcast started. I talked about it. So, dreams are coming back. Confirmation is coming.

Jonathan: Amen.

Doug: Finances are coming. Doors are opening. New things are going to come. It's going to be an amazing year.

Jonathan: Amen.

Doug: Thank you so much, Jonathan.

Jonathan: Thank you so much for having me on, Doug. We love you.

Doug: Love you too, and love everybody else.

All right. See you soon.
