

3 Keys to Breakthrough
Doug Addison [Episode 145]
September 9, 2020

Hey friends, Doug Addison! Welcome to Spirit Connection podcast. September 9th, 2020.

I've got an encouraging word for you and, of course, we wanna pray for people who are going through things right now. We've got fires, floods, hurricanes, the pandemic. We've got stuff going on, but God has stuff going on from Heaven. And I wanna give you an encouraging word.

But first, let's just pray [to] the Lord for those who are suffering, those who have lost their homes. And we just pray that You would move from Heaven upon us right now. And I know that we've been going through some things, but God says that this is a time, there's a shift happening in the heavenly realm during September. So, I pray that we would come into agreement on Earth as it is in Heaven, in Jesus' name. Amen.

All right! Well, it's really important to trust what God is doing right now. Don't get discouraged. And I just released a prophetic word, and it's on my website. I want you to check it out because it's not only for September. This is the Jewish New Year—which is Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur—is a time when God speaks, and He's gonna open the books and new assignments are gonna be coming.

But I released a prophetic word, Episode 144 on my podcast last week. Or just DougAddison.com, click on my blog or do a search for this. And it says, "Prophetic Word: God's Plan Being Released for September." That's the word for this month. And I'll recap it right now because it may seem like there's a shaking going on, but God's gonna do something with this shaking. And He's baking something new for you right now in the midst of this. And the shaking we are encountering is gonna produce greater glory. It's gonna produce things. It's gonna align us for the new movement, but also the new levels of giftings and anointings being released from Heaven. Haggai 2:7 says, "I will shake all the nations, and that I will bring greater glory to the house." And the Lord's gonna be moving ... He's moving right now, and things might look like it's shaking, but it's gonna be a Haggai 2:7 experience. And "I will fill the house with glory." And it's gonna be greater glory than before.

And I just wanna recap my prophetic word in case you didn't hear it, is that the windows of Heaven are opening. This is a need, and it's based on Malachi 3:10 and it says, "Bring the tithes into the storehouse so there may be food in My house," says the Lord. "See if I will not open the windows of Heaven and pour out so much blessing there will not be enough room for it." Now I'm not talking about tithing here. This prophetic word is talking about the storehouse. It's the windows of Heaven and the storehouses that need to be filled. And the storehouses on Earth are being emptied right now. We're being pushed with the pandemic, with superstorms, fires and floods and earthquakes and stuff going on ... on Earth. But the storehouses in Heaven are indeed full, and the Lord wants to release this. He's releasing financial ideas and blessings. He's releasing this stuff, not to become wealthy for yourself. It's so that you can be blessed to be a blessing.

We're experiencing this right now. I'm not saying we're ... We don't have the full overflow that I really believe is coming. But we're blessed to the point where we can give money to people. We give out money, and you know, we have been repositioned on the internet. I'm just sayin', I'm just sayin' that it's time to get a good, positive God-attitude on what's going on. Watch for financial blessings and strategies to be released to increase your income, to help, you know, pay for the things. The government can't pay for everything, so we need to step up as a church, as businesses. And so be sure to catch the prayer I posted on my blog, on my Prophetic Word: God's Plan Being Released for September. Because there's a prayer on there I want you to pray to open up, it's gonna help clean the windows of Heaven. Clean things over you.

Also, the Books of Heaven are being opened right now. Isaiah 5:19, "Let the prophetic plan of the Holy One of Israel come to pass so that we can see what it is!" This is the time of the year—it's called the Days of Awe. It's the Jewish New Year (which will be September 18th through the 20th), and Yom Kippur (the Day of Atonement) is the 27th through the 28th. Now we're no longer under the Law of Moses or anything like that. But God still works ... He still moves on the Jewish calendar so you can align yourself with what God's doing.

And so, what does alignment mean? Well that means that you can actually place yourself in a position to get a greater breakthrough if you know what God's doing. If you know where it's gonna be, you go stand over ... or there might be things that you need. In fact, I'm gonna release 3 keys right now to help align you or position you for this month.

The first one is: believe. Believe God is moving. Activating your faith is so important because it'll bring you in alignment with Heaven. Jesus said, "Believe, and you will receive." And many times He couldn't even do miracles because of unbelief. So step up right now, even though you might not see it, by faith, believe.

The second key is to listen to the Lord. He's speaking all the time, and we need to get into tune with this season. It might be a little different. I've already noticed He's speaking differently to me. So take time to pray but go beyond your prayer requests. You know, take some time especially this month to listen to what God has to say. He's speaking all the time, but we need to also slow down and listen.

Key number three is spend some time worshiping. Singing, worshiping, praising. You know, God will open things up in a greater way. Singing in the spirit. I keep worship music going on, you know, I keep it going on through internet worship. I just keep it going. I just keep ... there's certain songs right now. Notice the certain songs that open things up for you and put those on a continual playlist or something.

So those three keys will help you right now. Believe. Listen to the Lord. And spend time worshiping and praising.

Here is another, it's not one of the three keys, but here's another word of advice for you is to stop grumbling and complaining. Even though I could complain, I'm doing my best not to complain. That's why when I come on these podcasts, I come on and say this really is, you know, we are walking through this time. But the Lord is good! You know? And complaining can create a whirlwind. Psalm 17:3, "Though You broke my heart, You examine me at night; You test me, and You'll find that there's no evil within me and my mouth has not transgressed." So, Psalm 17:3 talks about not coming into agreement with things of your mouth. And we got to be careful of that. We need to be careful how we speak. And especially this month as we're walking into a time where God's releasing greater assignments, and we want to come into agreement with those.

So, it's important to step away from things that bring division. Things that lack love. And start bringing some encouragement. That's what I try to do in my podcasts all the time. And so some people may be saying, "I'm not hearing clearly right now, or I feel like I'm under this ..." Where the Lord told me that ... He showed me that there's a negative whirlwind going around right now, and it's alive and active. It's Hosea 8:7, it says, "They who sow the wind will reap a whirlwind." Now if you look at the Hebrew for Hosea 8:7, the word “wind,” actually the word for “wind” is ruach, which is translated as “angry.” So be careful not to come into the agreement with the angry wind that’s going on.

People have been sowing frustration, rebellion, revenge, you know, anger. It’s everywhere! And I know that it’s important that we need to be able to diffuse the spirit of anger and release the spirit of peace. And we can voice our opinions over the injustices. You know, if you wanna protest peacefully. We need to step in the spirit of reconciliation. And if you get angry about something on the internet, you know, refrain from lashing out. You can voice your opinion but be careful about coming into agreement with the other side.

Matthew 5:44, Jesus says, “I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.” So, we can actually weaken our prayer, this is what the Lord showed me, that we would be careful that we’re not weakening our prayers. Revelation 12:10, “The accuser of the brothers and sisters who accuse them day and night before the Lord.” See, this is Satan’s name in Revelation 12:10, is the accuser. So one of the names of Satan being the accuser, be careful that you don’t come into agreement with that by accusing others. By stepping into that accusation. Again, you gotta be careful with that. And you can still voice your opinion. Be careful you don’t move over into that because it can weaken your prayers.

And so I wanna do a check right now ... and see is there fruit in your life, what’s going on? Are you seeing answered prayers? Are you seeing financial blessing? Are you seeing people come to the Lord? Maybe coming to you for wisdom and stuff like that. If it is the opposite, if you’re seeing the latter, then it’s a good chance that we need to shift that focus to God’s agenda and not complain or argue, you know with others over our own opinion. Maybe you’re not guilty of this. Really good. Glad that’s the case.

But you can actually open up things over your finances right now. It’s so important. Part of my prophetic word is that God will be releasing the windows of Heaven. But He did show me that many people have dirty windows. You know, the enemy had gotten in there and dirtied up the windows. And I put a prayer, actually, in last week's Spirit Connection. A prayer that you can go through. It's also on my blog. It's the same thing that I mentioned at the beginning. There's a prayer I want you all to pray that's also a prayer on Aslan'sPlace.com. I give you the link on my blog. It's my friend, Paul Cox, and he wrote a prayer and it was how ... I don't remember the exact title, but it's basically, it's cleaning up the illegal access of the windows of Heaven. And this is where maybe you have generational curses over accessing the windows of Heaven for blessing, using the gifts for the wrong reason. The Lord showed me, and I talked to Paul Cox about that, and that we need to clean this up. And he has an amazing prayer to do that. And so, accessing illegal windows of Heaven, just if you Google that, Paul Cox. Or you can look at my website, get the link as well.

I believe we need to clean up those windows. And as we do that, we're gonna see the transference of wealth. And because of the pandemic, because of the tragedies happening on Earth, we need money for humanitarian purposes. We need to bring money for the, you know, to launch the revivals, to help people. It's not to pad our own pockets right now. In fact, I'm just been trying to be an example to others. We've gotten finances, you know, when they give us, you know, we received money from the different things from the government. And you know, we didn't just stick it in the bank. We tried to pay it forward as much as possible. I just wanna encourage you to be blessed to be a blessing and step into this new season.

There is a shaking that's happening over finances. Hebrews 12:26 says, "At that time, His voice shook the Earth. But now He's promised, 'Once more I will shake not only the Earth, but also the heavens.'" And the words 'once more' indicates removing of what can be shaken—that [is], created things—so that what cannot be shaken will remain." Hebrews 12:26. The Lord is shaking things. And He's not the one causing the pandemic or all that stuff. But He will shake things open. And He's gonna bring about—the shaking is gonna bring about Proverbs 13:22, "But the wealth of the sinner is stored up for the righteous.” We’re entering into that season right now. And many people have been praying for this and not realizing that God’s about to answer this prayer. We just need to get rid of the things that have the same agreement with the world.

And so I believe God wants to release things. I’ve given you some plans. I’ve given you the keys. We need to pray and activate this right now.

Lord, I pray that You would shake things open. (And this isn’t a negative thing. This is not negative. Don’t look at this and think that we’re gonna expect to see an earthquake or something like that.) That You’re gonna shake up to open the finances. That You’re gonna clean the windows of Heaven so that we can walk into this time, into this season of hearing Your voice during Rosh Hashanah—Yom Kippur, in Jesus’ name. Amen.
