

Prophetic Word: The Start of Sweet and Deep Revelation

Doug Addison [Episode 218]

February 2, 2022

Hey friends, Doug Addison. Welcome to Spirit Connection podcast, February 2nd, 2022. I've got the prophetic word for the month of February. I tell you, it's been one ... one powerful, powerful time getting this word. As well, it's been quite a powerful stir in the spirit. We've been having a lot of spiritual warfare, assaults and stuff, but I tell you the Lord is greater. Greater is the One in you than the one in the world.

We come into agreement right now in Jesus' name. Lord, we thank You for this time. This word that you gave me, it seems to be a higher level than any word I may have gotten. You even told me to wear my prophetic blue shirt [chuckles] as a sign that this word's going forth in Jesus' name. Amen.

Well, DougAddison.com is my website and normally I do a Q&A time. You can put in your questions, my team's fielding them. But today, I'm releasing one of the more strategic and powerful words I've had in very, very long time. And later on, we will look back and just say, wow, this really was the turning point. It's called The Start of Sweet and Deep Revelation. You know, God's moving right now. And we're coming into a season. It's the end of the season of mourning.

We've been in a time very similar to Ezekiel 2:9–10, “Then I looked, and I saw hand stretched out before me. And in it was a scroll (a spiritual scroll, of course), but in it was a scroll that unrolled before me. And on both sides were written the words lament, mourning and woe.” Now he was seeing a vision. It wasn't a literal one because God works this way. The Lord is bringing an end to the season, the long and difficult season of mourning, sorrow and loss. We're coming out of a dry and barren time, very similar to Ezekiel 37, the Valley of the Dry Bones. And many people, including myself, have been walking through (as well) the Valley of Tears, also the Valley of the Shadow of Death, all at the same time. We've been kind of on a triple-cord attack of the enemy in these places, these valleys. But there's great news. I tell you that the Lord is moving in the month of February, though this word is not limited to February. You're going to see that February is going to be the major turning point, spiritually, and there's a power and anointing that's being released from the Lord to get you broken free, to get you set free and into this new season that the Lord has.

Now, here's a little bit into the new season we're coming out of that time, you know, of mourning and woe in Ezekiel 2:9, but we're moving into a season of ... Whooo, sweet revelation. Ezekiel 3:3, “Then he said to me, ‘Son of man, eat this scroll that I'm giving you, fill your stomach with it.’ So I ate it, and it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.”

Oh my goodness. This is a brand-new season that the Lord is bringing, unlike anything in the past. And you know, I'm a signs prophet. That means, well, I live these things out and I've been living out this word. I walked through that season, you know, all of those valleys. But now, I've just ... In the past weeks, actually, the past few days, I've gotten some of the sweetest, deepest, freshest revelation I've ever got, and I'm a sign, if I could do it everybody—, you know what I mean, I'm a sign that it's going to happen to you starting this month. Brand-new season that's here, unlike anything in the past. The Lord is releasing fresh revelation, wisdom and understanding. The suffering and trials are going to begin to make sense, and the Lord is going to redeem it all for His glory.

Get ready to write down what you're hearing, and there's a release of new ideas, songs, writing, strategies. There are no limits right now and the Lord is now bringing higher revelation and deeper understanding to your situation. It will require you to obtain it yourself first for your family, business, ministry and government, then put your own oxygen mask on first before trying to help others, basically, with this.

So, here's a second part of this word for February—Israel is now in position. What President Trump did to honor and acknowledge Jerusalem as the capital of Israel is now coming into place. It's going to start making sense to those who have spiritual discernment, who have eyes to see and ears to hear.

So, another part of this word for this month—Be strong and courageous but show kindness and love. This is so important. Ezekiel 3:9, “But I will make your forehead like the hardest stone, harder than flint. Do not be afraid of them. Do not be terrified ... to the rebellious people.” Now this is a—, man, I tell you. This is a tough one. Stand strong for what you believe. Continue to do that, but be very careful to not be too harsh, you know, with your zeal and truth so that you would overpower others or wound others. And remember that you yourself need time to process changes. And so, there's some major changes happening right now. There's mindsets. The Lord is changing mindsets. He's bringing things. I tell ya, He's bringing things. He's changing people right now. But be very careful that you're ... don't become a crusader for the truth, and you begin to overpower and wound people who need to hear your message.

Again, this is two things going on here. One is a big mindset change for us to do that. The other is the Lord's working behind the scenes in people that you need to influence around you. So, this mindset change, that's needed. You'll have to learn to work with people and not try to force what you believe down their throat. And also, you'll find that people are way more open right now. Many people are open to the truth. You're going to see this, but they have to receive it in a different way.

This is a huge change in the season that we're in right now. The Lord is moving on the most unlikely people, and you know, they might not change their political associations or do things that you might think they should do. But He is indeed changing their hearts so that they can have this process. Remember, let people have a process. Even you needed a process every time something came, you know, the Lord has changed. Think about this that, you know, even a rosebud needs time to bloom. I'll say that again. Even a rosebud needs time to bloom. You cannot force it open. And this is a season the Lord wants you to back down and show love and kindness and patience, and you will see some people start to change.

Here's another big, big one for this month, and this is starting this month, but it goes on beyond this. There's a change in the understanding of women in business and ministry. Acts 2:18, "But even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy." The Lord is cleansing and changing people's understanding into the roles women can play in ministry and business, and the Bible has been misused throughout history to justify discrimination of women. Also, the Lord is going to bring some new major course corrections. And it's going to be greater understanding in the roles that women can play not only in leadership, but just in general. We're going to see this sweep through. Watch for this to happen.

Another part of this prophetic word starting this month, not limited, though (because God's outside of time), is the end of human thinking or human plans and moving into the plans of the Lord. Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and to not harm you, plans to give you a hope and a future." February marks the start of a major shift for people who've been using human planning. You know, natural thinking and thinking it's the Lord's or over the Lord's. Previously, we've been in a difficult time. I'll tell you it's not—. This is not like it's a correction. We've been in very difficult time to discern the will of the Lord, the voice of the Lord.

We've had to operate under spiritual clouds for some time now, but I tell you, this is coming to an end. There's a major change coming to you in the ability to hear the voice of God and discern it with confidence. This is coming. Step up. You're going to see a change.

Finally, this month in February, the whirlwind is coming to an end. In Hosea 8:1, "Put the trumpet to your lips! An eagle is over the house of the Lord because the people have broken my covenant and rebelled against my law." So, you know, there's been a lot of evil, rebellious and lawlessness happening. I tell you, we're in a season that—, where we really are, we've been a very, very serious season of a windstorm. And a lot of what we've done in the midst of this has been swept up into a whirlwind similar to Hosea 8. But we're in a condition in which that, you know, that we've kind of been reaping—, we haven't been able to reap. But we're entering into a new season where the windstorm and the whirlwind are coming to an end. Do not be discouraged when you see people operating in rebellion and violence. This is a spirit that got released on the street. But I tell you, the Lord is about to move in your families ... in our families, on the streets, in cities and nations.

But first, we've got to go back to that word about put your own oxygen mask on first, then you'll be able to know. So, ask the Lord. Take time right now, raise up a time of prayer and ask the Lord, "Is there anything in my heart that I need to change? Anything in my life I need to change that's in agreement with this, any type of rebellion, lawlessness?" I don't know. The Lord will show you. Then we want to cleanse your own heart of any ungodly spirits or behavior, then He'll show you that anything needs to be changed. Then you'll have authority to be able to do the other things, by the way, which I mentioned ... Do them with gentleness and love.

Be encouraged as February marks a major turning point for us all. Let's just pray and activate this powerful word.

Lord, I thank You that You're putting an end to the whirlwind. I thank You, Lord, that this is a major, major turning point. That even as I got this word, it was just a powerful download, and it was the start of the sweet and deep revelation. (It is. It's a start of the sweet and deep, deep revelation.) Lord, open this up. I pray that You would show us, first and foremost what we need to do—put our own oxygen mask first, before we try to help anybody else. Lord, we pray too for the anointing, the power, the glory and the love. Give us patience as we're working through this new season; and we're walking into a time of transition in Jesus' name, amen.

Well, I tell you, it's a powerful, powerful time. DougAddison.com is my website and I want to encourage you to respond and give into this word. This is a powerful, powerful word ... word of change and, you know, maybe the Lord's calling you to even take a step right now into giving in to this word, financially.

We're grateful for all the people who donate to us. We're able to reach the world and do the things that God's called us to do. It's our 25th year in ministry together and I'm excited. So go to DougAddison.com/Give. Consider giving, consider becoming a Partner with us and join us. We have, actually, an online church. Most people don't even know that we're actually registered as an online church. And if you become a Partner with us, we have a meeting every month and we have a—, just ... you'll see on there.
