

Psalm 33 Decrees

Doug Addison [Episode 288]

June 7, 2023

Hey everybody, Doug Addison here. It's Spirit Connection podcast, June 7th, 2023. And you know, I've got a continuation of a theme that the Lord is bringing called "Healing, Redemption and Restoration." This week, we'll look at Psalm 33 and some powerful Bible verses that you can pray and decree.

My website, DougAddison.com, for more information about our ministry.

Oh, true Lord Jesus, we thank You for Your goodness. We thank You that Your Word is right and true. We thank You, true Jesus, that we can use Bible verses to pray and that You are bringing and You're sending greater help right now. We ask right now in the name of the true Jesus. Amen.

All right. Well, you know, I've been teaching on this, but right now I want to go through some of the Bible verses out of Psalm 33 that you can pray and decree right now. It's very powerful. Psalm 33:3–4, "Sing to him (to the Lord) a new song; play skillfully, and joyfully [shout] for joy. For the word of the Lord is right and true; and he is faithful in all that he does." The Lord is continuing to release power and anointing through worship, singing, praying and decreeing Bible verses. You know, we can use current worship songs, or we can make up our own songs by singing to the Lord a new song. You know, we can also sing and pray the Scriptures. You know, it's really important for us to sing, worship and decree Bible verses.

The Lord's going to reveal new understanding of His love and his faithfulness for us. You know, there's a very, very powerful anointing and authority being released from the Lord through this, and the Lord is going to open the Bible up to us in a fresh, new way ... and He's faithful in all He does. So, trust in the Lord, be hopeful and ask for joy and refreshment. You know, if you need to, just get up right now and shout for joy.

We ask right now that You would give us this.

It's going to change your situation for the good. You can use Bible verses to pray. Psalm 33:9, "For he (the Lord) spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm." You know, some of us are in the storms right now, and the Lord is giving us new anointing, power and authority. The Lord is going to show us how to stand and command. And the Lord is fighting our battles right now for us. He's going to bring things into order and He's giving us some Bible verses, specifically to help us to command and stand.

Also, watch for the Lord to speak more clearly and bring things together. You can ask for help. Ask the Lord for help. Psalm 33:20–22, you know, "We wait on the Lord; and he is our help, he's our shield. In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name. And may your unfailing love be with us, Lord, even as we put our hope in you."

That's Psalm 33:20–22. Very, very powerful, these verses out of Psalm 33. The Lord is releasing new hope. He's releasing new help. Trust in the Lord and wait in hope and do not give up. The Lord is releasing a new understanding of his unfailing love for us right now, and He is bringing healing to broken hearts. He's refreshing us. And the Lord is also releasing helper angels and warring angels and shielding us right now. You know, the key to all of this is worshiping, praying, using the Bible verses ... and reach out to others in agreement, in prayer.

Well, right now, true Jesus, we thank You for this word. We thank You that You are indeed going to use the Bible, singing and verses and singing songs. And Psalm 33 is very powerful ... that You would release over us, right now, the understanding that the Bible is right and true. Release over us, right now, how to use the Bible and pray, how to—, release over us, right now—help. We ask You for help, true Jesus. Amen.

You know, I've been walking through this powerful teaching on how to get a breakthrough in your life and it repents, you know, walking through this. I do this every week now, because it's what brings everything together. Maybe it'll open up—, I think it's layers that happens as you do this.

But I want to walk you through a process that I use—Bible verses. So, you find Bible verses. I'm giving you Bible verses every week. Here's three more or three more sections, not just three verses, but here's three more. But pray the promises, agree with others in prayer and then do deep repentance of anything that you might have “in common” that would stop the Lord from moving and blessing us. You know, it's important to add worship, fun, joy to this as well.

And, you know, think about this and think about what you need right now. I know that—, I'm going to say it again. We need a financial breakthrough. I'll talk more about that later, in just a couple of minutes. But what is it that you need specifically? Pray about it and then find some Bible verses ... is how you get the logjams that might be there. Maybe there's some strongholds over jam-ups, gridlock and delays. Well, here's how you do it:

True Jesus, the true Lord Jesus, we repent, we renounce, and we break anything we might have “in common,” including generational—soul ties, curses, things that we may have done knowingly or unknowingly. We also ask that we could just move into this time of agreement with You and others. We agree in prayer to break off anything that's holding us back.

We forgive.

Unforgiveness can be something holding us back and forgiveness opens things up, so we want to break off the spirit of unforgiveness. You don't have to agree with a person or a group to forgive them.

You know, there's things I just say real quick that you might want to reach out to someone to get help if you're having trouble with this. And so, the Lord, you know, sometimes you need to forgive the Lord and go through a prayer process, you know?

So, Lord, I ask forgiveness if I've done anything that's hurt anybody, if I've come into agreement with anything, knowingly or unknowingly, against this message, or that would stop us from moving forward or stop You from breaking us out of the old season and into the new. Also, I ask forgiveness for any misuse of spiritual gifts, any misuse of finances or funds or anything that You've given us, known or unknown. So, true Lord Jesus, I ask right now that You would flush out the things that are seen or unseen, but send them to You. We just ask them—, send them to where the true Jesus sends you, in the name of the true Lord Jesus. Amen.
